Welcome!

you

We're Chrissy, Hanna, Noa, Lena, and Lisa

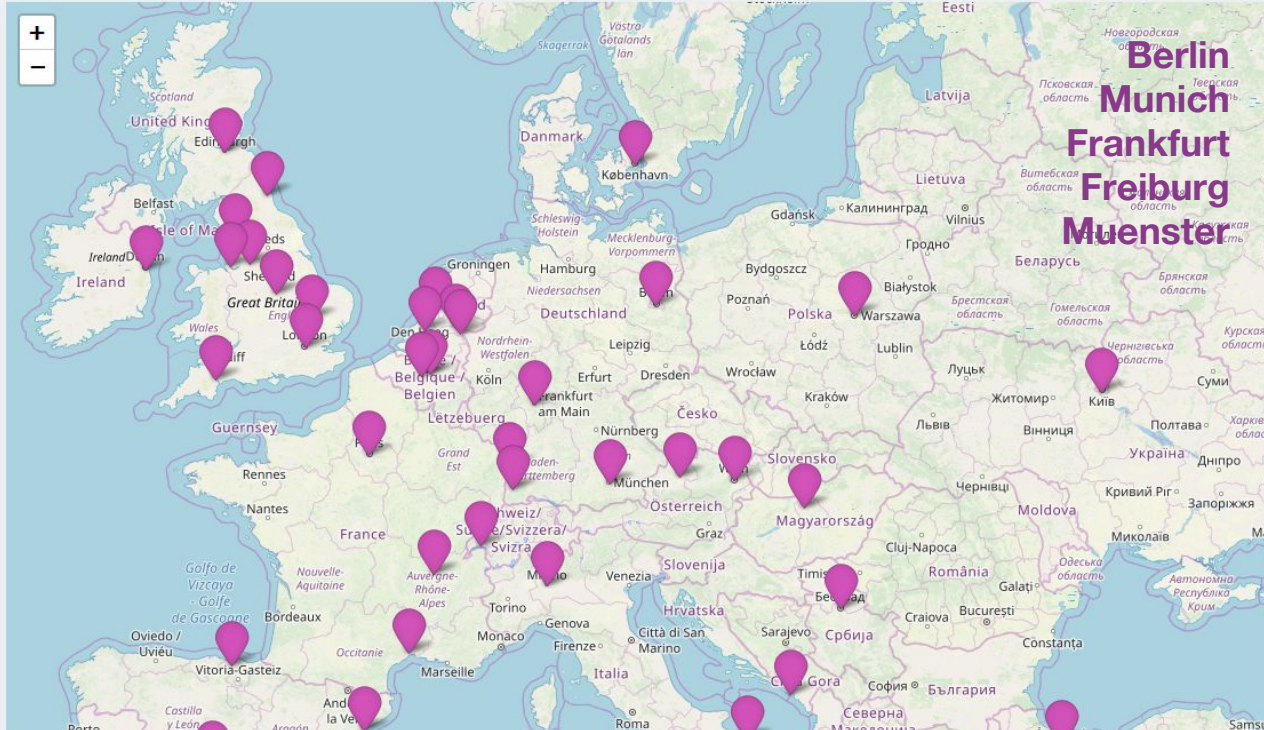

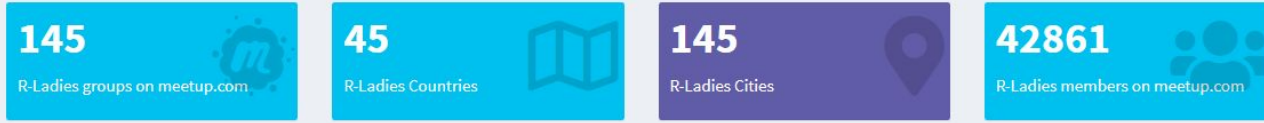

In March 2017 we got together to form the Berlin chapter of R-Ladies. You can follow our activity (and help us spread the word) on   @RLadiesBerlin and sign up for upcoming events on  rladies-berlin.

What is R-Ladies?

Founded by statistician Gabriele de Queiroz in San Francisco, Oct 2012, R-Ladies aims to increase of the participation of women in the R community by encouraging women to join the coding community, develop R packages and to increase the attendance and visibility of women as speakers at R conferences and meetings

2. Code Of Conduct

- Public events are always for free
- The conceptual domain / scope is R-specific
- Be aware and acknowledge other's contribution
- Use neutral language
- Constructive, supportive and gender-inclusive environment to share, learn and network
- Organizational & mentoring roles are exclusively reserved for women

3.1

Open Mic

Do you have news that you wanna share? You have a R-related problem and need some input? You're looking for an expert in x or y? Did you just discover a great package and wanna spread the news?

Let us know that you would like to get on stage prior the next meet-up. No slides required, only you and a mic.

Drop a line or talk to us: berlin@rladies.org

3.2

Rethinking Code

Sometimes when we are pressed for time (or lazy) our code does not turn out the best it could be. “Rethinking code” is a new segment where we would like to invite you to polish snippets of code together.

First launch - meetup session in April!

If you have code that you would like to come back to and discuss
Drop a line or talk to us: berlin@rladies.org

4.

Join us online at the slack Rstats-germany

Join our online community for additional networking, support and get in touch. Send an email to berlin@rladies.org; we'll send you an invitation.

In preparation - Online casting of meetup sessions and tutorials -
German-wide network for R-Ladies and learners!

5.

Save the date - our next session will be a collaborative hands-on session including our new feature

“Rethinking Code”

When: 16th April 2019

Where: Babel, Berlin-Mitte

Stay tuned! Updates soon online on  meetup.com/rladies-berlin/

6.

satRday Berlin 2019

Hello!

This is Alison

Alison works as a UX Researcher for a gaming company, GameDuell GmbH, in Berlin. In her daily routine she primarily uses R to quantify the feedback the company receives from users about the games, new features and prototypes.

8.

Hands-on training - Text Mining

This session will focus on the relationships between words by conducting frequency and sentiment analysis.

(R packages: dplyr, tidytext, janeaustenr, tidyr, igraph, ggraph)
